NEWCOMER KRIEG BLITZES THE OPPOSITION TO WIN LONGINES LEG AT LEIPZIG

Via: FEI

In the most sensational result of the season so far, the relatively unknown young German, Niklas Krieg, galloped to victory at the ninth leg of the Longines FEI World Cup™ Jumping 2015/2016 Western European League on home turf in Leipzig.

Ireland's Denis Lynch lined up second with All Star ahead of The Netherlands' Harrie Smolders and Don VHP Z in third when they were the only others to leave all the fences in place second time out. But Krieg won with a massive three-second advantage to announce his very definite arrival at the top end of the sport. 🏆
