MARCUS EHNING

WINS THE LONGINES GRAND PRIX OF SWITZERLAND AT CSIO5 ST. GALLEN

GERMANY'S MARCUS EHNING HAS WON THE LONGINES GRAND PRIX OF SWITZERLAND, THE HIGHLIGHT OF THE LONGINES CSIO ST. GALLEN. JUDGED ON PENALTIES AND TIME WITH A WINNING ROUND OVER FENCES UP TO 160CM IN HEIGHT, THE COMPETITION, WHICH FEATURED 500,000 EUROS IN PRIZE MONEY, COUNTED TOWARD THE LONGINES WORLD RANKINGS AND SERVED AS A QUALIFIER FOR THE 2026 WORLD EQUESTRIAN CHAMPIONSHIPS IN AACHEN.

Germany's Marcus Ehning has won the Longines Grand Prix of Switzerland, the highlight of the Longines CSIO St. Gallen. Judged on penalties and time with a winning round over fences up to 160cm in height, the competition, which featured 500,000 Euros in prize money, counted toward the Longines World Rankings and served as a qualifier for the 2026 World Equestrian Championships in Aachen.

Riding Coolio 42, Ehning delivered double clear rounds, finishing the winning round in 46.08 seconds.

Photos via St. Gallen