Kent Farrington Wins Thrilling Rolex IJRC Top 10 Final at CHI Geneva

Kent Farrington wins the 15th Rolex IJRC in CHI Geneva after ridding at his best against the top ten world riders.

Farrington's performance with his teammate Voyeur got them to the top of the podium after giving a thriller performance. The 15th Rolex IJRC has featured riders performing with control, speed, focus, accuracy and a vivid passion to show-jumping which led the riders to feature one of the most competitive competitions.

Second round clears were proving hard to find until Kent Farrington and Voyeur came into the arena. Living up to their deserved reputation as one of the fastest partnerships on the circuit, they sped around the course whilst the crowd held their collective breath, and laid down a lightning fast 37.54 seconds round; it looked difficult to beat.

Now the curtain has fallen until Sunday December 13; the Rolex Grand Prix, where one rider will start their journey towards emulating Scott Brash in winning their first stage of the Rolex Grand Slam of show jumping.

The results of the 15th Rolex IJRC Top 10 Final:

- 1- Kent Farrington (USA), riding Voyeur
- 2- Simon Delestre (FRA), riding Hermes Ryan
- 3- Daniel Deusser (GER), riding First Class van Eeckelghem
- 4- Christian Ahlmann (GER), riding Codex One
- 5- Penelope Leprevost (FRA), riding Flora De MariposaAll
