Jan Tops, Longines Global Champions Tour Founder and President: "We started with a show here three years ago, and every year it gets better and better. The riders know that, and have the same feeling, even if it's a long way [from Europe]. The horses travelled amazingly, the footing and facilities are as good as any in Europe, and I'm very proud of what the Chinese are doing. The Government and Juss Events are great partners, and that reflects the sport. Today we saw how well the horses jumped - we had five in the jump-off and it was a great [Grand Prix]."

Abdullah Al Sharbatly, Gold Medallist: "I would like to thank all the organisers, especially Jan Tops, and the sponsor Longines for this great Global Champions Tour. I'm really happy to be in this great event with a great crowd - the atmosphere is unbelievable. I'm happy today to win - last year I had the last fence down in the Grand Prix and was unlucky, but this year was a great win. I would also like to thank my colleagues in second, third and fourth place - they were all amazing, and did a very good job. Tobalio is my best horse - he is amazing."

SEIZES GRAND PRIX WIN AS NEW MULTI-YEAR DEAL FOR SHANGHAI LGCT ANNOUNCED

Via: LGCT

A breathtaking Shanghai Longines Global Champions Tour Grand Prix jump off had fans on the edge of their seats as Abdullah Al Sharbatly (KSA) and Tobalio emerged victorious ahead of Marco Kutscher (GER) and Van Gogh, and Marc Houtzager (NED) with Sterrehof's Calimero.

After the showcase competition it was revealed that Longines Global Champions Tour and partner Juss Event have signed a long-term agreement for the future of the event in Shanghai, which has become a dynamic fixture on the circuit's international calendar. The unique 5* event in China was part of a strategic expansion by the Tour into Asia and has quickly become a hot favourite with spectators who queued early today to ensure their seats for the Grand Prix. The announcement of the new agreement marks a definitive commitment to the progress of the sport in Asia in future years.

The result of the $485,000 Grand Prix dramatically extended Christian Ahlmann's ranking lead to 129 points, with Emanuele Gaudio (ITA) leaping up to second in 96 points, and John Whitaker (GBR) in third on 85 points.

PENELOPE LEPREVOST

AND AN ASTONISHING WIN

Penelope Leprevost with her chestnut mare Flora de Mariposa stole the show and took the win of the Longines Global Champions Tour Grand Prix of Antwerp. World number 1, Simon Delestre, got the silver medal and Rolf-Göran Bengtsson got the bronze medal.

Penelope Leprevost: "My mare is very fast. For Flora it was the first big show since Geneva, I'm happy with my plan as she had a three star show before. She was just amazing today." 🏆

FRANCE IS ON THE TOP

IN LGCT MEXICO CITY GRAND PRIX

Roger-Yves Bost (FRA) claimed the Grand Prix at the debut Longines Global Champions Tour in the vibrant Mexico City. In a very challenging competition, Jos Verlooy (BEL) was able to clinch the runner-up spot and left Bertram Allen (IRL) in third place.

Roger-Yves Bost (FRA), gold medallist: "I've won two Global Grands Prix with the father of this horse, one in the final of Abu Dhabi, so to win with the son is a very good feeling. The show is so good - my horse felt very good in the class. When I jumped yesterday I felt I had a good chance to win - today is my day! For the first time to jump here, this place is amazing."

Jos Verlooy (BEL), silver medallist: "Every show [my horse] is going better and better. I built him up in the winter, we're going up together and he's going faster than I thought. I am very pleased with how he went this weekend. Miami was also super and gave me a good feeling for this week."

Bertram Allen (IRL), bronze medallist: "Bosty had a really good round, he was fast. I knew it was going to be difficult for me to beat that - my horse has only done three 5* Grands Prix so I gave it a bit of a go, and had a bit of an unlucky fence down, but I'm delighted to be sitting here."
