FURUSIYYA FEI NATIONS CUP™ JUMPING 2016

UKRAINE MAKES IT A THREE IN A ROW AT SOPOT

Via: FEI

The Ukrainian team continued their relentless campaign for promotion to Europe Division 1 and a place at the Furusiyya FEI Nations Cup™ Jumping 2016 Final when posting their third Europe Division 2 victory of the season at Sopot (POL). They came into the competition filled with confidence after overwhelming the opposition at Celje (SLO) and Odense (DEN) last month, and as Chef d'Equipe, Najib Chami, pointed out afterwards; it is the decisiveness of his side's victories that is pleasing him most right now.

"I'm really happiest because we are not winning with 12 or 16 points at each show" he said, after a four-fault effort was good enough to clinch it, even without a second round run from anchorman Rene Tebbel.

Tied with the eventual winners on a zero score at the halfway stage, Team Austria survived a second-round elimination to hold on for runner-up spot ahead of Belgium in third and Spain in fourth place. Just eight of the massive line-up of 15 teams made the cut into the second round, and it was Denmark that finished fifth ahead of Sweden in sixth, Germany in seventh and Australia in eighth place. 🏆

IRISH CLINCH CLASSIC VICTORY AT FURUSIYYA LEG IN ST GALLEN

Via: FEI

The Irish team gave their Chef d'Equipe, Robert Splaine, an extra reason to celebrate his birthday when, in a gripping competition, they won through in style at the fourth leg of the Furusiyya FEI Nations Cup™ Jumping 2016 Europe Division 1 leg at St Gallen (SUI).

As so often happens at this Swiss fixture, the weather played its part, with heavy rain piling extra pressure on the last-line riders in the closing stages. But the Irish stood firm, producing three fabulous second-round clears to add nothing to their first-round score line of eight faults, while Greg Broderick once again confirmed the pure talent of his 10-year-old gelding, MHS Going Global, when producing one of four double-clear performances.

Sweden, France, USA and Germany shared second place when finishing with 12 faults on the board, while the hosts lined up sixth ahead of last year's series champions from Belgium in seventh and Czech Republic in eighth and last place. In their first season in Division 1 the Czech side are already visibly improving, and the performance of 19-year-old Anna Kellnerova, who had just a single fence down in each round on her debut at this level of the sport with her nine-year-old stallion, Classic, augurs well for the future. 🇮🇪

FEI NATIONS CUP™ EVENTING
GERMANY TRIUMPHS
AT HOUGHTON HALL

The German team clinched the title of Houghton Hall (GBR), third leg of the FEI Nations Cup™ Eventing 2016 for the second year running and left Australia in the runner up spot.

The French were third and the host nation Great Britain finished fourth. 🏆

FEI NATIONS CUP™ DRESSAGE

USA ON TOP AGAIN IN RAINY COMPIEGNE

Via:FEI

Team USA were deemed winners of the third leg of the FEI Nations Cup™ Dressage 2016 series at CDI5* Compiègne (FRA) where torrential rain led to the cancellation of the Grand Prix Special. An extraordinarily heavy downpour left the arenas under water for some time, and the Ground Jury made the decision to base the result on the Grand Prix of the day before alone, in which American riders came out on top by a convincing 11-percent margin.

“Unfortunately, these changes have to be made due to the bad weather circumstances, with the approval of the FEI, the Organizing Committee, the President of the Grand Jury, the Foreign Judge, the President of the Appeal Committee, and the Chefs d’Equipe” the Organising Committee explained in a press release. “Riders were given the option of competing in today’s Freestyle as a separate class.”

The runner-up spot went to Sweden, in Third was France, who left Germany and Belgium in fourth and fifth places. 🇺🇸
